

Anna Grace
Senior Director, Membership & Events
Inforum

For the past seven years, Anna Grace has been dedicated to advancing women's careers through her work at Inforum, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit that accelerates leadership development and fosters professional growth. As Senior Director of Membership & Events, Anna leads initiatives that inspire members, cultivate strategic connections, and drive engagement across Inforum's network. In addition to overseeing membership growth and signature events, she manages a portfolio of Corporate Investors in Southeast Michigan, ensuring that companies are actively supporting and developing their women leaders.

Committed to strengthening the talent pipeline, Anna launched the Next Gen Advisory Council, a statewide platform that amplifies the voices of early-career professionals and helps shape Inforum's future through innovative programming. She also leads the Southeast Michigan Regional Council, working with business leaders across industries to create opportunities for professionals at all career stages.

Beyond her work at Inforum, Anna is deeply engaged in her community. She serves as a Board Member At Large for the City of Berkley DDA, helping drive initiatives that support local businesses and enhance community engagement. She also volunteers as an advisor for Central Michigan University's Alpha Chi Omega chapter, mentoring young women in leadership and professional development.

Anna's dedication to building strong professional networks and championing career growth has earned her industry recognition, including being named one of Corp! Magazine's Most Valuable Young Professionals of 2024. She believes that by fostering collaboration and creating meaningful connections, professionals at every stage of their careers can thrive.
