

Stacie Hunter serves in the role of Chief Operating Officer for Racheal Allen Inc. As Chief Operating Officer Stacie is responsible for operations, programs, administration, and day-to-day management for all businesses that fall under the Racheal Allen Inc.

Her previous role was VP, Community Manager for Detroit, for Chase Bank. in which she engaged the community in meaningful relationships within the Detroit Metro area and brought information and resources to advance racial equity, reduce systemic racism against Black and Brown people and support employees. She has been in the banking industry for 34 years. Before taking on the position at Chase Stacie served as Chief Operations Officer & Chief Financial Officer for Franklin Wright Settlements Inc. a human service organizations based in Detroit.

Stacie has her B.A. Business/Marketing from the Wayne State University, M.B.A in Business Management from the University of Phoenix and is currently pursuing her Doctorate Degree in Non-Profit Leadership from Liberty University. She is also a proud graduate from the Leadership of Detroit.

Currently Stacie serves on the Board of Directors for Fostering Leadership Academy, The Rhonda Walker Foundation and is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Incorporated.

Stacie is married to Anthony Hunter; they have eight beautiful children. In her free time, she enjoys working with her husband with their business, spending time with her children and grandchildren, reading, ministry, volunteering for youth programs and serving at Impact Church, where Pastor Keenan Knox is her Pastor.